PHILOSOPHY

The philosophy of this program is to teach the children individual basketball and team skills and improve their overall physical conditioning. Our goal is to develop self-confidence, self-control, self -discipline, commitment and leadership. Team unity, team spirit and sportsmanship are things coaches will try and instill. In these levels, winning isn't everything but it does have importance to the children. Parents and coaches, please remember that this game is for them, not us.

SECTION A: ELIGIBILITY AND TEAM ORGANIZATION

1. All $5^{\text {th }}-8^{\text {th }}$ grade girls and boys will be eligible to participate in the league.
2. Each player must play within his or her respective grade level and may only play on one team.
3. All $5^{\text {th }}-8^{\text {th }}$ grade registrants will be required to enter the draft. The Romeoville Recreation Department's Player Placement Policy will be followed to select teams.
4. Draft: All players that attend the evaluation will be entered into the draft for their division.

- Children of Coaches and Assistant Coaches will be automatically placed on the Coaches team.
- Teams are only allowed 2 total coaches

5. Players that do not attend the EVALUATIONS cannot be requested or drafted. These players will be randomly assigned by the Athletic Supervisor (not including coaches' children).
6. All reasonable efforts will be made by the Athletic Supervisor to limit team size to a maximum of 10 players or a minimum of 7 players.
7. The Romeoville Recreation Department has final authority for the assignment and/or retention of coaches and players. The Athletic Supervisor has the authority to change teams if one or two teams have high level or talented players. Some talented players may be asked to join a higher division.
